

Newsletter July 2025

We want to inform you of an important scheduling update regarding the 18th Annual NTSGNA Lone Star Roundup. Due to a conflict with the TSGE, AFS, and Greater Houston SGNA conferences, the event has been rescheduled to Saturday, September 20, 2025. The venue remains unchanged and will be held at the Fogelson Auditorium, Texas Health Presbyterian Dallas. Please mark your calendars for this important gathering, as it will feature a comprehensive agenda covering a range of pertinent gastrointestinal topics. We look forward to your participation and are excited to share this valuable experience with you.
